WE CLAIM:

management of textiles and garments, the composite fabric comprising a generally uniformly integrated fabric layer formed with an inner exposed surface that is predominantly hydrophobic material and an outer surface that is predominantly hydrophobic material, whereby the fabric forms a one-way liquid transport system extending away from the inner surface towards the outer surface.

- 2. A composite fabric according to Claim 1, in which the hydrophilic material is/polypropylene.
- 3. A composite fabric fabric according to Claim 1, in which the hydrophilic material is one of polyester and cotton.
- 4. A re-usable diaper comprising an inner layer formed of the fabric according to Claim 1, a middle layer formed of treated cotton fabrics, and an outer layer formed of water proof material.
- 5. A diaper comprising an inner layer formed of the fabric according to Claim 1, a middle layer formed of disposable absorbent material, and an outer layer formed of water-proof material.

15

10

Sub Rapo Control

I the day well the trans to the trans

#, f $

10

7. An incontinent mattress cover including a composite textile fabric layer according to Claim 1.

8. Clothing according to Claim 7 comprising boxer shorts.

9. Clothing according to Claim 7 comprising long pants.